

Jacob Gwiazdzinski

Heritage Consultant, Archaeologist

Jacob Gwiazdzinski has over five years' experience as an archaeologist and heritage consultant working on historical and First Nations sites of local, state, national and world significance in NSW. Jacob has also worked on Commonwealth listed sites in the ACT, sites of state heritage significance in Victoria and sites of local significance in South Australia. He holds a Master of Research from Macquarie University, and a Bachelor of Archaeology and Graduate Diploma of Archaeology and Heritage Management from Flinders University.

Prior to joining GML, Jacob worked as a subcontractor archaeologist on historical and First Nations excavations throughout New South Wales. He has also been involved in archaeological and ethnographic projects in South Australia, Tasmania, the Northern Territory and Dendera, Egypt.

Jacob has strong skills in research, photogrammetry, site surveying as well as on-site photographic and archaeological recording.
